Joseph Badger Serves as Congressional Intern in Moran's Salina Office

SALINA – Congressman Jerry Moran today announced that Joseph Badger is serving as a congressional intern in his Salina office. Badger is a 2005 graduate of Santa Fe Trail High School.

"Joseph's willingness to help and his ability to manage multiple tasks have been valuable to me as I work on issues important to Kansans," Moran said. "I appreciate his efforts and am pleased to provide him this opportunity."

Badger is a senior majoring in Political Science, Natural Resources and Environmental Sciences at Kansas State University. His interest in government and public policy motivated him to seek the congressional internship with Moran. Badger is contemplating pursuing a master's degree in economics following his graduation from Kansas State.

"I am very grateful and excited for the opportunity to serve Congressman Moran and the citizens of Kansas," Badger said. "I am confident that this opportunity will provide me with valuable lessons and experiences that I will call upon in all of my future pursuits. The Congressman has a long-standing reputation as a diligent worker on the behalf of Kansans, and now I have an even greater appreciation for his dedication. I couldn't be happier to have the opportunity to assist him in his efforts."

In the office, Badger is assisting Moran with legislative and administrative duties on behalf of the people of Kansas. Badger is the son of Keith and Martha Badger of Carbondale.
