This Week in Congress

January 9, 2006

Dear Friend,

Welcome to "This Week in Congress." I hope you find this newsletter useful.

Leadership Changes in Washington, D.C.

I believe it is time for a change in leadership in the U.S. House of Representatives. Both Democrats and Republicans need to focus on what is good for Americans. Not only do we need a change in leaders, we need a change in the way business is conducted in the nation's capital.

This weekend I signed a petition calling for a special election to replace Tom DeLay's position as House Majority Leader. The election will take place when the House of Representatives reconvenes later this month.

From Hope to Paradise: Continuing Tenth Annual Big First Listening Tour

Since Congress adjourned before the holidays, I have been traveling the Big First district to continue my tenth annual listening tour. Each stop is useful to me as I meet directly with Kansans to hear their thoughts and concerns. This input helps me do a better job representing Kansans in Congress.

Over the last two weeks, I made stops in Coldwater, Greensburg, Hoxie, Hill City, Logan, Sublette, Ness City, Stockton, Miltonvale, Quinter, Clay Center, Liberal, Minneapolis, Minneola, Garden City, Jetmore and Meade.

The tour schedule is below. Visit my website at www.house.gov/moranks01/ to stay up-to-date on tour stops that are still being scheduled.
