

6/06/2003 Public Television to Air Program on Rural Health Care

Public Television to Air Program on Rural Health Care

Program Features Federal Medicare Administrator Thomas Scully, Moran and Kansas Health Leaders

BUNKER HILL - Congressman Jerry Moran today announced that Kansas public television will televise a round table discussion on health care in rural America. The hour-long program will feature one of the President's top health care advisors, Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Administrator Thomas Scully.

In addition to Moran and Administrator Scully, participants include Congressman Earl Pomeroy (D- SD), Dr. Barbara Atkinson, Executive Dean and Vice Chancellor for Clinical Affairs University of Kansas School of Medicine; Susan Page, Administrator of the Pratt Regional Medical Center; and Dr. Robert Moser, Chief of Staff for Greeley County Health Services in Tribune. The show is hosted by Tim McQuade.

The program will be aired at the following times.

- Smoky Hills Public Television, based in Bunker Hill, will air the program on Wednesday, June 11th, at 7:00 p.m. and on Sunday, June 22nd, at 6pm.

-

- KTWU Public Television in Topeka will air the program on Sunday, July 6th, at 12:00 p.m.

-

Consult your cable company or local program guide to determine the public television channel that serves your area.

###