Ashley Huseman of Ellsworth Begins Internship for Moran

WASHINGTON, D.C. - Congressman Jerry Moran today announced that Ashley Huseman of Ellsworth is now working as a congressional intern in his Washington, D.C. office.

"The internship program is a good opportunity for young people to get a better understanding of the federal government," Moran said. "I am happy to have Ashley working on behalf of Kansans."

A native of Ellsworth, Huseman graduated from Ellsworth High School in 2001. She is currently pursuing a bachelor's degree in finance at Kansas State University. As a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority, Huseman is also on the National Dean's list and a member of the KSU horse judging team.

"Interning in Washington, D.C. is a wonderful learning experience," Huseman said. "I feel very fortunate that I am getting the opportunity to participate in this internship program."

In the office, Huseman is assisting Congressman Moran with legislative and administrative duties on behalf of the people of Kansas' First Congressional District.

Ashley is the daughter of Virgil and Mary Jo Huseman of Ellsworth.
