Mike Koss of Haddam Serves as Intern in Moran's Washington, D.C. Office

HADDAM - Congressman Jerry Moran today announced that Mike Koss of Haddam is serving as a congressional intern in his Washington, D.C., office. Koss is a 2004 graduate of North Central High School in Morrowville.

"Congressional internships offer Kansas students a rare opportunity to serve their state and observe the workings of the government," Moran said. "I am glad to have Mike in my Washington, D.C. office working on projects that benefit the people of Kansas."

Koss is a junior at Kansas State University where he is studying political science and economics. At K-State, he is a member of College Republicans and the Pre-Law Club. Koss also volunteers for Court Appointed Special Advocates and served as a teaching aid at Eisenhower Middle School and as an assistant coach for the Eisenhower Junior High track team in Manhattan. He is a recipient of the W.T. Rooney Scholarship, Margaret Hess Boyle Scholarship and Kansas State Leadership Scholarship. He will graduate in May 2008 and plans to attend law school.

"I am grateful for the opportunity to help the people of Kansas by working in Congressman Moran's office," Koss said. "It has been a fulfilling and educational experience assisting Congressman Moran in his efforts to improve the lives of Kansans. I hope to carry his compassion and work ethic with me throughout my life."

In the office, Koss assisted Congressman Moran with legislative and administrative duties on behalf of the people of Kansas.

Mike is the son of Mark and Mary Koss of Haddam.
