Tiffany Nichepor of Ness City Serves as Congressional Intern in Moran's Office in Washington, D.C.

NESS CITY - Congressman Jerry Moran today announced that Tiffany Nichepor is serving as a congressional intern in his Washington, D.C., office. Nichepor is a 2005 graduate of Ness City High School.

"There is no better way to learn about our government than to work for a branch of it," Moran said. "I am pleased to offer young Kansans like Tiffany the opportunity to come to our nation's capital and learn firsthand how Congress works."

Nichepor is currently a junior at McPherson College in McPherson where she studies business marketing, advertising and finance. In addition to her studies, Nichepor is a member of the varsity volleyball and basketball teams. She was recognized for her athletic performance in 2005 and 2006 by being named to the Regional Volleyball Team. Nichepor also participates in student government and the business club. After graduating from McPherson College, Nichepor plans to pursue a career in marketing.

"As a small town Kansas girl, I am thrilled to have this experience working as part of Congressman Moran's staff," Nichepor said. "It is exciting to learn about the political process and I am thankful to have the opportunity to work for my home state."

In the office, Nichepor assists Congressman Moran with legislative and administrative duties on behalf of the people of Kansas.

Tiffany is the daughter of Alex and Stephanie Nichepor of Ness City.
